Special Acknowledgment: A heartfelt thanks is extended to Edmond H. Wollmann, a true legend of our times who masterfully weaves together the essence of astrology, psychology, and metaphysics. His dedicated work over the decades has shed light on the intricate mechanics of reality, profoundly impacting many, including offering transformative tools that have enriched my own life journey. I highly recommend exploring Edmond H. Wollmann's contributions.

Edmond Wollmann is the only astrologer on earth to predict the reality of UFOs/UAP 30 years in advance. His articles on astrology/psychology have been published internationally beginning in 1985. As a student of astrology and counseling astrologer for over 35 years, he holds a professional certification in astrology and a double degree in psychology/studio art from San Diego State University. His self-empowering psychological and metaphysical approach to the application of astrology is inclusive and unique

Disclaimer: AI Personality and Content Generation

Note on AI Personalities and Content

ai.dougall.dev offers a feature of customizing the personality of your AI brain. It is important for users to understand the following key points regarding this feature:

1. Distinct from Real Personalities: The personalities available for selection within ai.dougall.dev are not connected to actual people. They are AI-generated profiles designed to simulate certain communication styles and traits.
2. Source of Responses: While the AI may generate responses that are inspired by or similar to the content or contributions of public figures or known personalities, these responses are entirely unrelated.
3. No Representation or Endorsement: The use of any name or style associated with a known personality does not imply that the individual is in any way responsible for, represented by, or endorsing the responses generated by the AI.
4. Fictional Nature of Interactions: They do not reflect the thoughts, opinions, or endorsements of any real individuals whose names or styles might have inspired the AI's responses.
5. User Discretion Advised: Users are advised to use discretion and understand the nature of these interactions. Responses generated by the AI should not be taken as personal advice or endorsement from any individual mentioned.

By using ai.dougall.dev, you acknowledge and agree to these terms regarding AI personalities and content generation. My aim is to provide an engaging and innovative experience while maintaining clarity about the nature of AI-generated content and interactions.
